St. Helen's C.E. Primary School
WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

8th July 2010

Sports Day

Congratulations to the Yellow Team who were the over all winners. Thank you to all the children who took part so well and demonstrated excellent "sportsmanship" Thanks also to the parents and relatives who joined us and helped to make this an enjoyable event.

Attendance

Our overall attendance in school for last week was 91.7%.

Mrs Gorman's class scored the highest class attendance with 93.8%

High School Induction Days

We hope the Year 6 children enjoy their induction day at Culcheth High and Urmston Grammar School on Monday.

SAT's Date 2011

Michael Gove has announced that the Key Stage 2 SATs in 2011 will now take place the week beginning 9th May. Can we stress how important it is that family holidays are ~~not taken during this week.~~

Summer Fair

We look forward to seeing you all at our Summer Fair tomorrow, Friday 9th July starting at 5.30pm.

This year's theme is 'A Sporting Summer'

Thank You from the Friend's of St Helen's

Friend's of St Helen's School would like to thank everyone for the donations for the tuck shop and chocolate tombola on sports day. £84.00 was raised!

Music Festival

Congratulations to the choir who sang really well at the music festival today.

Parking

We have been asked to request that cars are not parked opposite one another by the Red Lion. On sports day it was difficult for buses to drive through.

Thank you for your co-operation in this.
